1. . . . that, for orders placed under multiple award contracts (MATOCs), the contracting officer must provide each awardee a fair opportunity to be considered for each order exceeding $3,000? See FAR 16.505(b)(1).

2. . . . that, when not giving every awardee under a MATOC a fair opportunity to be considered for an order exceeding $3,000, (i.e., limiting competition), the contracting officer must justify the exception to fair opportunity, and the justification must be approved at the levels stated? See FAR 16.505(b)(2) for justification requirements and approval levels.

3. . . . that the Alternate Special Competition Advocate for the 409th CSB is LTC Patrick J. Badar?

4. . . . that the Time-and-Materials and/or Labor-Hour Determination and Findings must be re-executed each time an option period is exercised? See FAR 16.601(d)(1)(i).
